

Perform

The InMotion Perform group was created to provide an opportunity for dancers who already spend lots of time in dance classes and want more opportunities to learn and perform in a fast-paced choreography environment. This group learns 3-4 dances each season to perform at Dance Revolution, local basketball games, and the spring recital. This group will also respond to other opportunities available throughout the season.

All aspiring & returning Perform students at InMotion must apply and participate in an audition class.

This audition is modeled as a fast-paced, advanced class with elements of jazz, lyrical, and related styles. Dancers may be asked to perform a short combination from the class in a small group or solo. Judges may conduct a short interview for each dancer. Dancers do not need to prepare a piece for the audition. Notes from your audition will be emailed to you so you have feedback upon which to build in your studies in dance during the season.
